Memories 1976

Volume 24

Broadway High School

Broadway, Virginia

Time is captured

on these pages of the past as they become memories

of the present

and future.

We are on a journey in time seeking our destinations.

*On our way
we pause
to experience
crystal moments . . .*

lighthearted

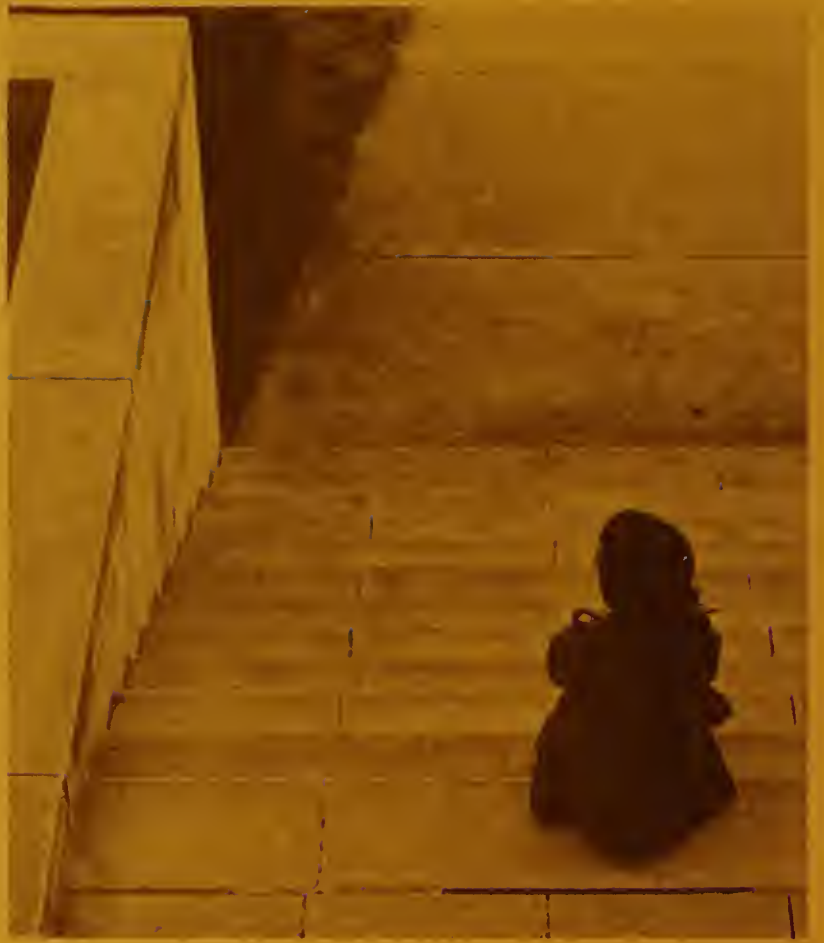

intervals . . .

enchanted interludes . . .

*and solitary
reflections.*

*We also find exhilarating
moments in group
identity.*

*Time, oh time,
where did you go?*

We did not hear the shot fired around the world, but we heard the shot that killed JFK.

We did not see the first airplane fly, but we witnessed the first men walking on the moon.

We did not live when the Teapot Dome Scandal erupted, but we have seen the ravages of Watergate in America's society.

Our ancestors fought in the Revolution, but our brothers fought in the jungles of Vietnam.

We did not see the suicides in the Depression, but we have seen unemployment rise and crime increase.

We never knew Thomas Jefferson or Abe Lincoln, but we saw the first President resign from office, and the first appointed President serve his country.

We have lived for only a moment, while our country has survived two hundred years.

presents
Stairway to Heaven
High School Gym
Saturday Evening
May 24, 1975

TO THE SENIORS
Each year goes missing by her Prom is here
In some this brings a joyous smile
To others, brings a tear.
For four years you have tread
a path
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb has just begun
We're very glad to know you
We'll miss you when you've gone
And to the Class of '75
We dedicate our Prom.

Cross Country

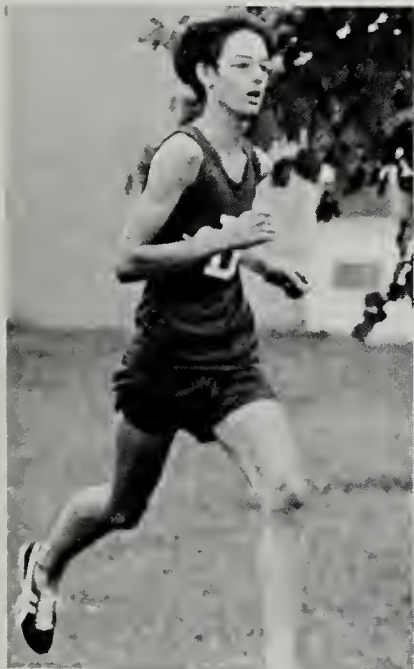

The Cross Country team has been running stronger each year and this year had the potential to take the District title. The team had a 3-3 record for its 1975 season. Jeryl Turner, the outstanding runner for Broadway, has broken all his previous running records this year. He likes to run in the rain, which keeps him cool, and his fastest time of 14:46 was set in the rain. Coach Kanagy feels that Jeryl will set new records in the mile and two mile in the spring.

"Aw, Jeff, cut it out!!"

"Now, dear, do we want punch with or without ice?"

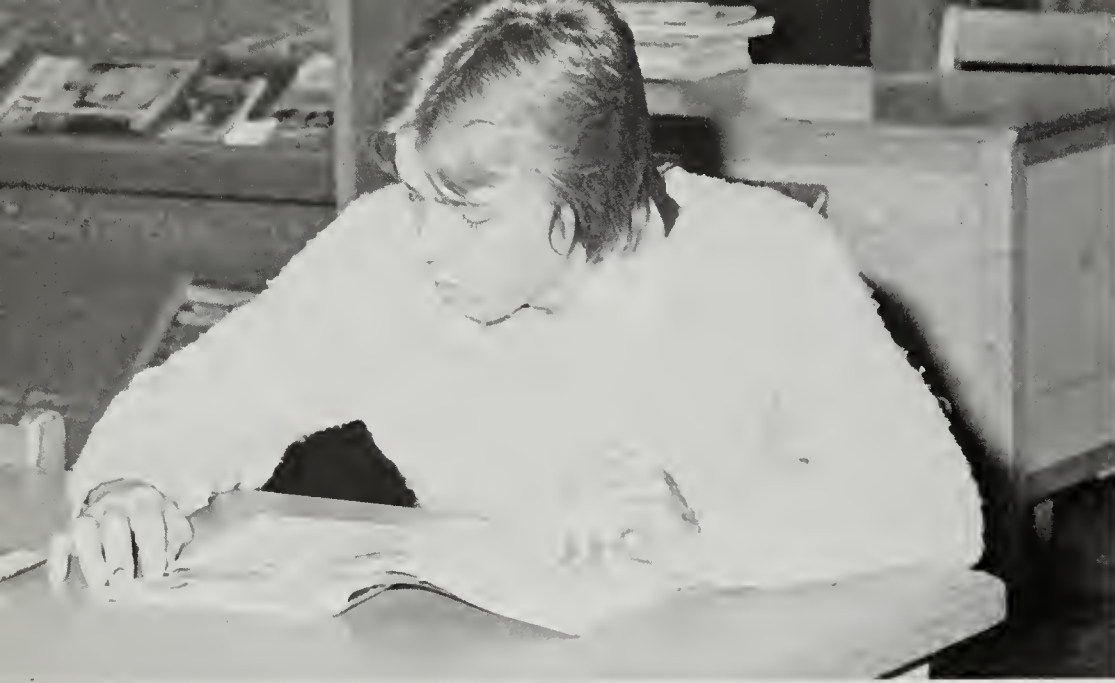

Esther Nesselrodt, Barbara Good, and Dorothy Lokey can hardly wait to get to class.

"Smile, Barbara, you're a senior!!"

Sometimes being a senior can put one at the end of his rope.

Doug peruses the latest issue of Good Housekeeping.

"Good morning, Miss Good. Today's assignment is . . . and this tape will self-destruct in five seconds."

The All-District Dristan team.

"You know . . ."

Being a senior has its hilarious moments.

"Please don't take my pic . . ."

Joan and Nancy head homeward.

Randy uses his new arm-wrestling technique.

"Maybe I should just skip today."

Senior Territory!!

Becky Earles, Paula Showalter and Susan Hulvey display their talents in the 1975 Junior Miss Pageant.

Epilogue

Broadway's "new addition" to the cheerleading squad, Angie Weaver.

Study, study, study.

"One sip of this and Mr. Kraft will be ours forever."

"Hey, David, look at this."

"Arm in arm, you and me, Babe."

Blaine Keller takes it all in stride.

The Gobbler Gang.

Donna Mathias concentrates on the game.

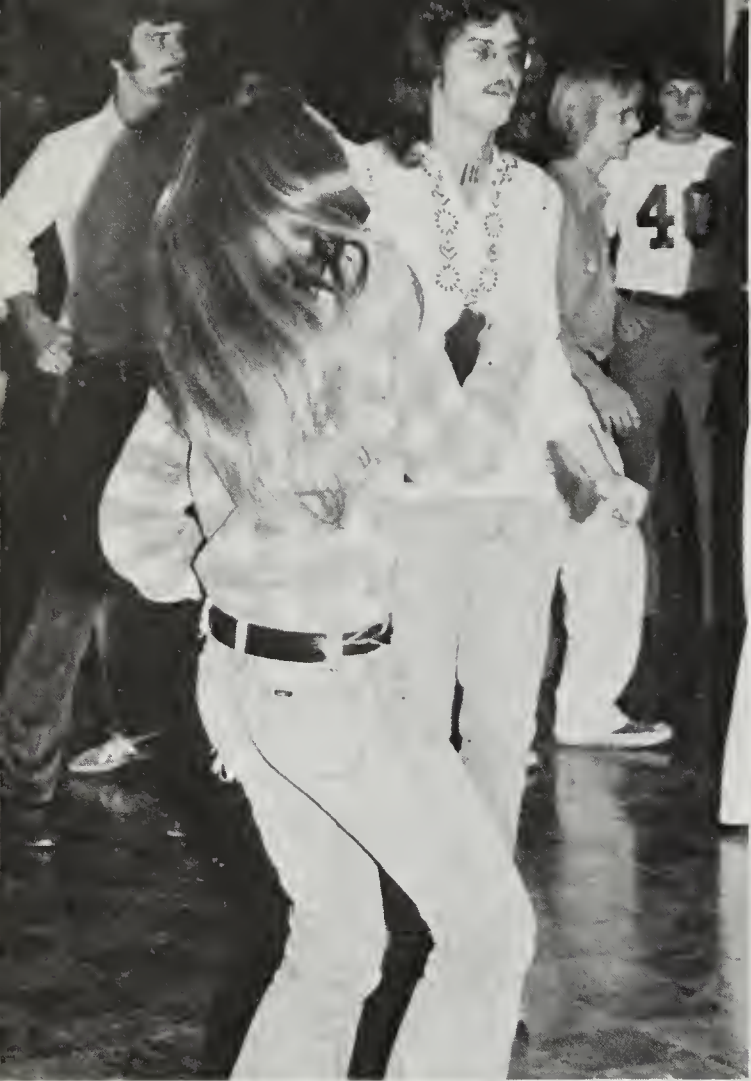

"All right, who's throwing the popcorn?"

"Hey, what's happening?"

1975 Homecoming Dance.

Sabrina moves to the music.

The Three Stooges?

Cathy and Cheryl return for the second half of the game.

"Bet you can't guess how many fireballs I have in my mouth."

"Let's go, Gobblers!"

Anticipation.

Chain Gang.

Steve and Kirk have got their eyes on somebody.

Valerie and Lavonne keep themselves busy selling pretzels.

Camera shy?

"I just washed my hair and I can't do a thing with it."

"He went that way!"

"Let's Boogie."

"Is it a plane? Is it a bird? — No, it's super Phoebe!"

Lick'em up, Gobblers!

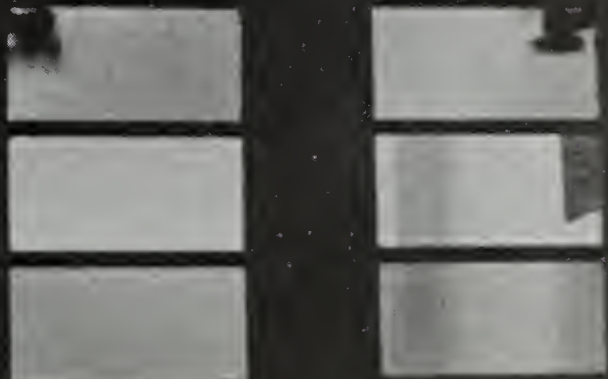

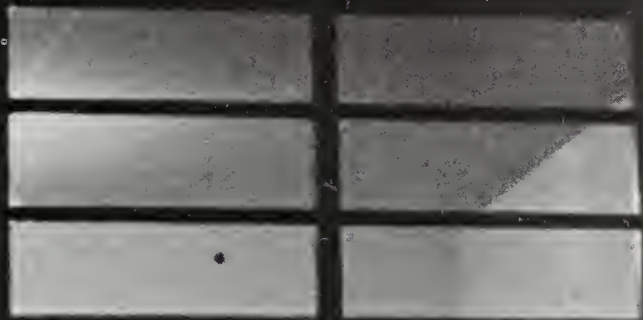

"My harem is increasing all the time."

A new defensive method — finger in the eye.

"Who goosed me from behind?"

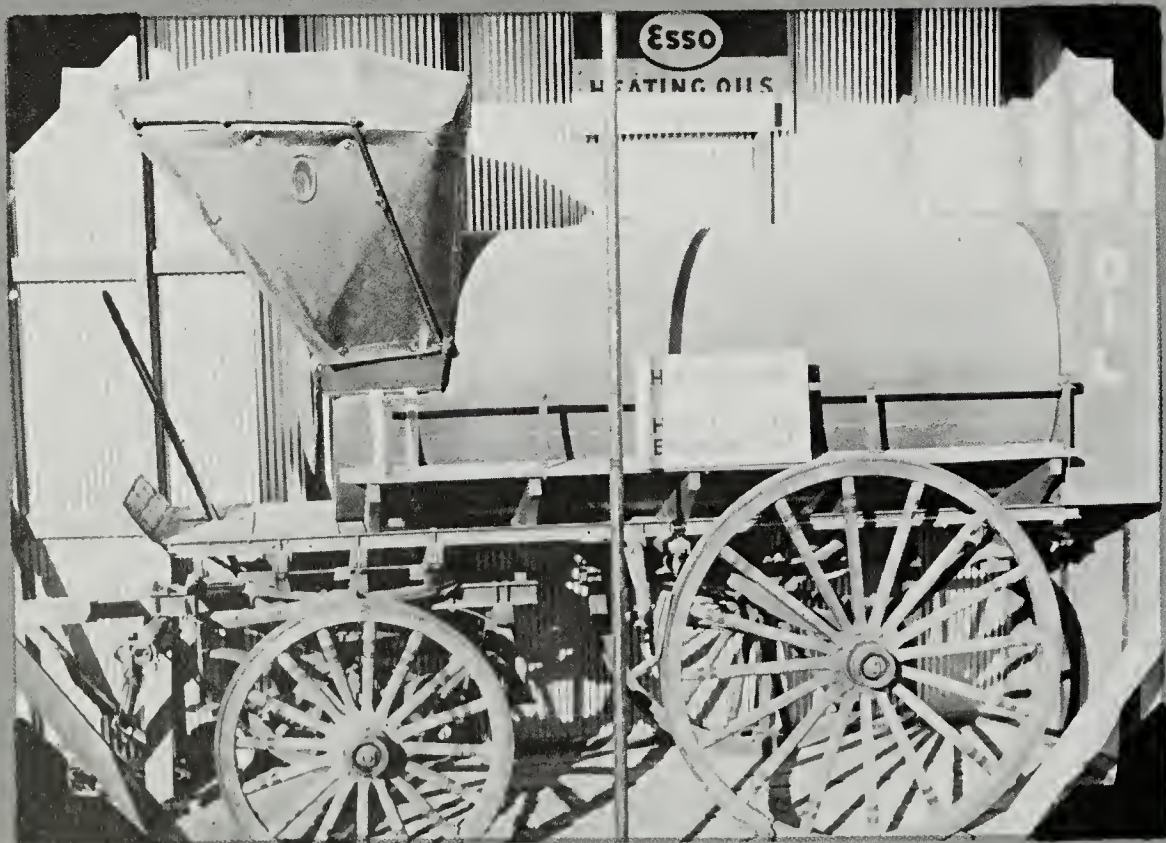

Soon we will put the final deadline in the box destined for Winston-Salem and turn out the light on endless hours of looking at over a thousand pictures and drawing hundreds of mats. This book of memories, which has belonged to us for six months, is now yours. By contrasting the old and new photographs, we have given to you some memories for the Bicentennial year.

We would like to thank everyone that has contributed to the yearbook in some way. We want to thank our advisor, Mrs. Betty Funkhouser, for advice and support, other members of the staff for their share of the work, our advertisers for their financial support and especially the students for making the memories.

Thanks,

Shirley Turner

Good Morning, Yesterday.

*You wake up, and time has slipped away;
And suddenly it's hard to find
The memories you left behind;
Remember, do you remember?*

*The laughter and the tears,
The shadows of misty yester-years,
The good times and the bad you've seen,
And all the others in between;
Remember, do you remember, the times of your life?*

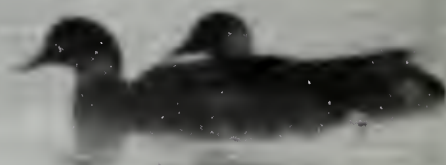

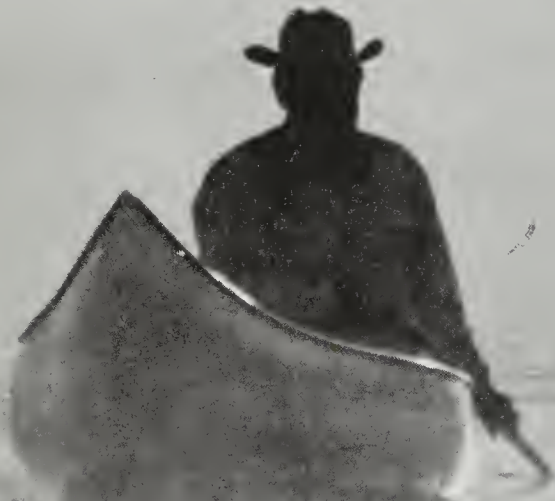

*Reach back for the joy and sorrow;
Put them away in your mind,
For memories are time that you borrow,
That spend their lives out to tomorrow.*

*What comes the morning after
The sunsets are pouring over by now
He gathers moments while you sleep
Collect the dreams you dream today;
Remember, will you remember the times of your life?*
